Small Print

I accept that I and all members of my family and others participating at my invitation in any of the Club's activities do so entirely at our own risk. I am aware:-

a) That the Club exists only to facilitate the mutual enjoyment of its activities by members and guests.

b) That the Club does not offer instruction in any sport.

c) That no member of the Club may offer instruction unless he or she is a qualified coach and is authorised to do so by the relevant Section Organiser and then only on an event designated in the programme as a coaching activity.

d) That responsibility for decisions affecting personal safety including those involving the use of the Club's equipment rests solely with the individual participants (or their parents/guardian if they are under 18).

e) That the Club can accept no liability for the act default or negligence of individual members

I also agree to the details given on this form being kept, for Club administration purposes only, on a computerised record in accordance with the Data Protection Act.
